

♀ Women's March ♂ in Chicago

HEAR OUR VOICE

The 2016 presidential election was memorable for marginalizing women and many of these issues connecting women: race, ethnicity, religion, immigrant status, class, labor, education, poverty, equal opportunity, family, childcare, environment, healthcare, sexuality, gender identity, a living wage.

On January 21, we will convene the Women's March on Chicago at 10 a.m. to mobilize, connect, and ensure that the new administration hears our voice.

Join us to CONNECT, PROTECT, and ACTIVATE.
